ABSTRACT

In the article the moral and patriotic education of preschool children is given that the education of patriotism and civic principles is one of the most important components of the moral education of preschool children .

Keywords: education, tradition, historical event, landmark.

Currently, there is no systematic experience in the field of patriotism education in preschool pedagogy, the existing methodological literature on patriotism education covers only its individual aspects - there is no system that reflects the completeness of this problem. The importance of moral and patriotic education is obvious, because it helps the child to develop the skills of relationships with adults and peers; interest in Russian traditions and customs is developing; There are feelings of responsibility and pride in the country's achievements, attachment to one's family, home, kindergarten, street, district, country, and respect for work.

We can say that, in general, the child's social competence is formed. In the future, I plan to continue the work on educating preschool children in the spirit of patriotism through the theme "Education of preschool children in the moral and patriotic spirit by introducing them to their mother nature."

Working with parents Parents should be integral participants in raising preschool children in a moral and patriotic spirit.

"In your family and under your leadership, a future citizen is growing ... everything that happens in the country should come to the children through your heart and mind" - AS Makarenko should be used when working with children and parents. This work is especially difficult nowadays. Because it requires great tact and patience. in many families, the issues of patriotism and citizenship are not considered important and sometimes cause confusion. Folder - copy I regularly hold interviews, consultations, questionnaires, surveys with the parents of my group.

I make folders - changers, put visual information in the corner for parents, attract them to participate in free time, holidays, contests, exhibitions, actions, open days.
